Yvonne Floyd requested retirees send recipes for the Varsity Club cookbook to Mandy Fulton. The cookbook will be published for the anniversary. The kick-off for the Anniversary is scheduled for Sept. 15, 2015.

Yvonne Floyd reported that the azalea trails did not take place. It is hoped that it will be possible next year. Chris Jines is planning the day trip to Huber Farms and Winery. The date will be Oct. 14. Transportation will be determined when we have a head count of those attending. Suggestions for other day trips were presented by Michael Whipple. He suggested the Evansville African-American Museum and the Evansville Museum of Arts and Science. Michael will speak with the staff at the African-American Museum to arrange a visit. It was also suggested we consider a group outing to the New Harmony Theater next summer.

John Deem discussed the phone committee. The job of the committee is to contact those retirees who do not have e-mail contact. Janet Greer had begun the process. It was agreed to contact Mary Alice Bertram to see if she would be willing to take on the responsibility with the help of Helen Sands.

The fall senior workshop was discussed. There is a reduced rate for attendance if registration is made by July 31. Ed Jones agreed to work with Mary Scheller for future workshops. Ed is also working on a spring medical workshop. Topics that were suggested were the Affordable Care Act, long-term care, volunteer opportunities, and developing a vision board. SWIRCA may be contacted as a resource for information.
